

What to do when you've been in an accident:

STOP.

You should not leave the scene of the accident until the authorities tell you it's okay to do so.

ASSESS.

Check yourself and your passengers for any injuries first. Then, if you are able, check the driver of the other car involved.

CALL THE POLICE.

Dial 9-1-1 and follow the operator's instructions.

GET MEDICAL ATTENTION.

It is important to get checked out by a paramedic or doctor whether or not you feel injured. If you are not the at-fault party, you can seek and receive compensation for any medical bills incurred as a result of the accident.
